Hundreds and Liberties of Somerset, such as are not named in any old Index, nor implied in any extant Inquest of A.D. 1084:—with parallel notes describing the ancient status of each Liberty, and accounting for the aforesaid omissions.

Name and Description of the Hundred or Liberty.	Ancient Status, and cause of Non-mention in the Inquest of A.D. 1084.	Existing Status of each Hundred or Liberty.
Glastingeberiensis Mansio, sive Villa	{ Glastonbury Abbey, its site and Home-estate of twelve Hides, with other appurtenances. The whole had from time immemorial been ingeldable, and therefore not liable to Gheld-Inquest..... }	{ Involved in the modern Hundred of Glastonbury—Twelve Hides.
Insulæ de Micheleneia et de Mide- leneia, et de Thorleia	{ Muchelney Abbey, its site and Home-estate of four Carnates, with appurtenances at Middleney and Thorney. The whole was non-hidated and ingeldable, and therefore escaped Inquest	{ Involved in the modern Hundred of Pitney.
Terra Sancti Johannis de Froma	{ Church-Fee of eight Carnates annexed to the Church of St. John, at Frome. The land was non-hidated, and therefore being exempt from Gheld, was involved in no Gheld-Inquest	{ Indistinctively contained in the Parish and Modern Hundred of Frome.
Pitney Hundred	{ Was probably in A.D. 1084 a sub-division of old Somerton Hundred, of which the Inquest is lost	{ Pitney is now a Sole Hundred, containing four Parishes or Parts of Parishes.
Whitley Hundred	{ Whitley Hundred was of Post-Domesday creation. It was mainly a reconsolidation of scattered estates, which had, after or before the Conquest, owned the Seigneurie of Glastonbury Abbey. Hence all the Manors which afterwards composed the Hundred of Whitley, may in some sort be said to have fallen under the assessment of A.D. 1084, though then involved in Hundreds of another denomination. Specifically two of the Inquests of A.D. 1084, assessed the Hundrede of Loxley and Ringoldsway, and out of the eighteen Manors then composing those Hundrede, seventeen, being Glastonbury Manors, were afterwards transferred to Whitley Hundred	{ Whitley is now a recognised Hundred containing 26 Parishes excerpted from the Præ-Domesday Hundreds of Loxley, Ringoldsway, Ham, West Monkton, Bruton, Taunton, Frome, and Bempstone.

11 Hundred of Abedicche estimated A.D. 1084, to have contained 137 hides, or, constructively, 107 hides.
